Leopoldo Rodriguez
Chairman Emeritus

Marc-Udo Broich
Chairman/CEO of Morgan Flair Yachts

Morgan Flair Yachts, a subsidiary of the American/USA von Broich Group, LLC, is an integral part of a company family that includes the majority ownership of the luxury yachts manufacturer Aicon Yachts, alongside various manufacturing and engineering entities.

Under the expert guidance of Marc-Udo Broich Chairman/CEO, and with Leopoldo Rodriguez serving as Chairman emeritus, Morgan Flair Yachts integrates modern technologies and German/American engineering, evolving into a brand renowned for its classic yet innovative yachts designs. The new American ownership ensures that Morgan Yachts promise of adventure, innovation, and respect for tradition remains more vibrant than ever.
